Felipe Gomez Alonzo died in U.S. Customs and Border Protection custody, 2018.

Carlos Hernandez Vazquez, a 16-year-old Guatemalan boy, died in a Border Patrol facility on May 20, 2019.

Felipe Gomez Alonso, an 8-year-old Guatemalan boy died in a New Mexico hospital on December 24, 2018. He spent six days in CBP custody before being sent to the hospital; he was discharged and held in a Border Patrol highway checkpoint for several hours. He was returned to the hospital when he started to vomit, and died the next day.

A two-and-a-half-year-old Guatemalan boy, who has not yet been identified, died in an El Paso hospital on May 14, 2019. He was apprehended on April 3 and spent three days in federal custody before being sent to a hospital. He was formally released from CBP custody on April 8, but remained in the hospital until his death.

Juan de Leon Gutierrez, a 16-year-old Guatemalan boy, died in a Texas hospital on April 30, 2019. He was taken to a hospital on April 21, released the same day, then taken to a different hospital on April 22 — where he was ultimately transferred to intensive care and then to the children's hospital, where he died.