

Black and Latino people are full human beings, not people to be denied the right even to live, gunned down by the police with impunity, incarcerated in genocidal numbers, and denied basic rights.

This is some of what the Trump/Pence regime is doing, encouraging, and says it will do, about WHITE SUPREMACY, POLICE BRUTALITY, and MASS INCARCERATION:

- Attorney General Jeff Sessions has called for maximum charges and penalties for non-violent drug offenders, reversing the policies that had reduced them.
- Sessions has put a halt on consent decrees with cities that aim to address some of the most egregious police abuses, such as Baltimore.
- The Trump regime has fostered a climate where a Mississippi legislator declared anyone wanting to take down Confederate monuments “should be LYNCHED.”
- The Republicans are moving to end Obamacare, which will result in an additional 217,000 deaths over the next decade and 22 million more people without health insurance. This will hit poor, Black, Latino, and Native American people hardest.
- In the name of stopping the “carnage,” the Department of Justice is working with police in 12 cities, and Trump has sent the feds to Chicago. These forces are the advance guard for a reign of terror on Black and Latino people.
- A proposed “Back the Blue Act” would make it harder to sue for damages for unjustified police violence; turn even minor, often nonexistent, assaults on police into federal crimes with severe mandatory minimum sentences; and expand the federal death penalty to cover killings of police.
- Federal funds for public schools are being slashed, while $1.4 billion is being added to encourage and support private, charter, and religious schools.
